

Dear Students and Trainees,

We are thrilled that you will be participating in next week's CAHSPR conference in Montreal. The CAHSPR Student Working Group (CAHSPR SWG) has organized a series of networking events specifically for students and trainees. Please see below for details:

Monday, May 28

Welcome Reception (6-7pm): Visit us at the SWG Booth during the Welcome Reception to learn more about trainee events happening during the conference and to pick up a SWG Bingo Card. The first person to complete their bingo card will receive a Starbucks gift card!

Tuesday, May 29

Poster Walk (5:15-5:45pm): Not sure how to make the most of the poster session? Meet at the SWG Booth to join an organized Poster Walk with a CAHSPR mentor.

Speed Networking Event (6:15-7:15pm): The Speed Networking Event is your chance to meet researchers and policy-makers from across the field of health services and health policy. Get advice and your questions answered on anything from technical and soft skill development to starting a career after school. Light refreshments will be served. Visit us at the SWG Booth to see the list of participating mentors!

McMaster Meet & Eat (7:30pm): Can't get enough of networking? Attend a FREE Mexican dinner at the Escondite and a chance to network with several McMaster faculty and other students. Remember to sign up at the SWG Booth, but don't delay! There is only seating for the first 12 trainees and preference will be given to Master's students. This event is sponsored by McMaster University's Department of Health Research Methods, Evidence, and Impact (HEI).

Wednesday, May 30

Poster Walk (5-5:30pm): Not sure how to make the most of the poster session? Meet at the SWG Booth to join an organized Poster Walk with a CAHSPR mentor.

Old Montreal Walking Tour (6-7pm): A free trainee-led walking tour of Old Montreal will depart from the conference venue. The tour will take approximately 45 minutes, finishing at the restaurant for the night's Meet & Eat.

Meet & Eat (7pm): Wrap up the final full day of the conference by dining at the Café Parvis and networking with other students. Remember to sign up at the SWG Booth, but don't delay! The first 15 trainees to sign up will be guaranteed a spot!

Also, please feel free to stop by the SWG booth at any time during the conference, as we'd be happy to meet and chat with you!

Each morning at the conference, we will be sending out event reminders via Twitter. If you don't follow us yet, following @CAHSPRSWG is a great way to keep up to date.

Thanks very much, and we hope to see you next week!

Sincerely,

-CAHSPR Student Working Group
