

Meghan Rossiter

Meghan Rossiter, M.A., B.Phil is Regional Liaison with the Collaboration for Innovation and Improvement program at the Canadian Foundation for Healthcare Improvement (CFHI). Currently, Meghan supports improvement partnerships throughout the four Atlantic Provinces aimed to improve chronic disease for patients and their families. Meghan brings skills and knowledge in applied research as it relates to effective governance models and public policy analysis.

An active tweeter in both her personal life and with CFHI, Meghan joins CAHSPR as the organization's first Twitter Maven, aiming to increase presence on the social media scene spreading the works of CAHSPR and its stakeholders. You can follow CAHSPR on the official twitter account @CAHSPR.

