KOMAL ARYAL

Komal Aryal is a Ph.D. candidate in Health Research Methodology (HRM) at McMaster University and holds a BSc in Honours Life Sciences and an MSc in HRM from McMaster University. Her research focuses on developing and validating a model to predict the risk of palliative care outcomes for older adults and understand the factors associated with dying at home. Her interdisciplinary research aims to use evaluate a personalized patient decision aid to improve end-of-life outcomes for older adults to help inform clinical decision-making.
